

Health Fair

An open house designed to provide specific populations with health/wellness information and/or services. The main focus is usually to provide educational materials and/or deliver specific Health Screenings.